9th November 2023

Dear Parent/Carer,

Anti-Bullying Week – 13th – 17th November 2023

Next week sees the school recognising Anti-Bullying Week which will be taking place in schools across the country. A week that has long been embedded in our school calendar, Anti-Bullying Week provides us with an important opportunity to secure children's awareness of what bullying looks like, in school and wider society, and learn about how this can best be noticed, responded to and managed.

The theme for the week is 'Make a noise about bullying' which will also provide the theme for our assembly on Monday morning at 9.00am which will kick the week off for all children in Key Stages 1 and 2.

As a way of celebrating everyone's uniqueness and individuality we are planning, along with many other schools across the country, to celebrate Odd Socks Day on Monday 13th November as part of the week. Children are invited to wear odd socks for the day, or perhaps wear matching socks if they normally wear odd socks!

Feel free to wear odd socks yourself to recognise the week, and speak to your child's class teacher if you would like to know more about what is happening throughout Anti-Bullying Week in their classroom.

Yours sincerely,
