

PINS: Partnership for Inclusion of Neurodiversity in Schools

PARENT CARER MEETING

Tuesday 18th March, 2pm

What:	A relaxed workshop to explore how to make your experience and your child's experience at school the best it can be. We will talk about how to achieve this by working in partnership.
Who:	The workshop will be led by Sarah from the Parent Carer Forum Devon. You can find out more about the forum here: Homepage - Parent Carers Forum Devon (parentcarerforumdevon.org) All parents, carers, friends and relatives are welcome. Please bring someone along if you are unsure about coming alone.
Why?	You can meet with other parents and carers, share your views and experiences, and explore how we will create a genuine partnership with the school. This in turn helps you to work together.
Where?	Haytor View Community Primary School & Nursery - Studio
And...	A free wellbeing bag for everyone who comes along!
