

Haytor View Community Primary School — Core Offer Statement

What will key outcomes see children and parents doing, feeling, experiencing ?

What might parents and children notice themselves doing?

Parents enjoy and share in children's lives

Modelling thinking – Making their thinking visible

Taking time to really listen and value each others' viewpoint and experience

Parents readily and routinely express ideas about children's learning and seek clarification where needed

Parents comfortable enjoying interacting with children within play (learning)

Starting to identify and value small steps and how important they are for long term success as a learner

Valuing all skills – personal and academic

Being comfortable speaking positively about themselves, their child and their learning

Talking positively about their child's learning journey

Seeing joy in learning

Getting involved early

Parents seeing how we develop the children's skills and outcomes, contributing and learning from these

Learning Leaders making parents comfortable

Parents are engaged by the school with their child's learning journey

Parents are comfortable discussing their anxieties as well as children's

Parents have their voice heard and recognise the impact that this has

Parents know what their children are doing in school

Enjoying learning together/ being together

Feeling they are making a positive difference

Feeling able to challenge and discuss honestly

Feeling confident to trust and follow

Feeling able to support their child or feel able to seek out how to support

Feeling comfortable being in the school setting

Feeling that the school has knowledge of family and considers this sensitively

Parents see themselves as learners

Sharing

Identifying and celebrating achievements together