

After leaving the mixture for 30 minutes in some cling film in the fridge, we rolled it out with a rolling pin, and cut out some star shapes of different sizes. We put them on a baking tray on some greaseproof paper, ready to cook.

